

7 graduates of the Faculty of Economic Studies and Political Science win the position of diplomatic attaché

Dr. Abdelaziz Konsowa, President of Alexandria University, congratulated the graduates of the Faculty of Economic Studies and Political Science - Alexandria University

Islam Ibrahim
Maryam Abu El Hana

Marwan Saad
Basant Mohamed El Sayed
Fatima Zahra Anwar
yara yasser
Nora Nafeh

For winning the job of a diplomatic attaché, in the competition recently organized by the Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, to fill these positions. They are graduates of the Political Science Department, the two divisions of study in both Arabic and English.

For his part, Dr. Ahmed Wahban, Dean of the faculty, expressed his happiness with the honorable representation of the College's graduates, and their ability to occupy prestigious positions in one of the largest strongholds of foreign policy.

Alexandria University seeks to restore its historical role by achieving a comprehensive qualitative leap in various fields of knowledge within a framework of noble human values that enable it to assume its leading position, whether at the local, Arab, African or global levels.