

Policy Statement on Non-Discrimination

The Strategy announces that the AU support the global transition to sustainable agri-food systems, in line with its objectives and the Sustainable Development Goals \(SDGs\)

This policy states that the University is committed to providing an equitable, inclusive, and safe environment for the campus community.

The Policy Statement on Non-Discrimination emphasizes the importance of an inclusive and welcoming campus community. It also lets the University community know about the types of protected statuses and increase awareness across the campus including students, faculty, and staff.

The official statement:

“The University is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment and to ensuring that educational and employment decisions are based on individuals’ abilities and qualifications. The policy of the university ensures no discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or veteran status as consistent with the University’s Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Misconduct”

“ No person, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation under any University program or activity, including employment terms and conditions.

“The University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and welcomes all to apply without regard to age, color, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, race, religion, sex, or sexual orientation. The university also encourage women, individuals with disabilities to apply/enroll”

Policy created 2019, reviewed 2022

Prof. Abdel Aziz Konsowa,
University President

A. KONSOWA

