

Policy on stakeholders' Engagement and Social inclusion

Alexandria University values stakeholders engagement and local community inclusion in its, regional and international affairs. The university issued this policy as it is :

- Committed to fostering a society that respects peoples, cultures and knowledges, and works towards addressing the legacies of the past.
- Guided by its policy to use its expertise and resources to involve stakeholders form the the community in teaching, learning, research and advancement of knowledge.
- Committed under the UN Sustainable Development Goals to intersect with community matters, through community diversity and belonging,
- Welcomes, caring, and equitable community where students, faculty, and staff with different backgrounds, perspectives, abilities, and experiences can learn, innovate, and work in an environment of respect, and feel empowered to engage in any community conversation to fit with the place of the University within the broader academic and local community.
- Strives to contribute to society through the pursuit, dissemination, and application of knowledge, strategies of conflict resolutions, and Heritage.

Policy created September 2019

Policy reviewed October 2022

Prof. Abdel Aziz Konsowa,

University President

A. K O N S O W A

