

Establishment of the Adult Education and Continuing Education Centre for public students

And

Alexandria University participates in the Open Education Project for Euro-Mediterranean Sustainable Development

Alexandria University Council approved the establishment of the Adult Education and Continuing Education Center, to be part of the activities of the Educational Services Center.

Within the framework of Alexandria University's adoption of UNESCO's recommendations regarding open education, and under the auspices of Dr. Abdel Aziz Konsowa President of Alexandria University, the University's Educational Innovations and Distance Learning Unit participates in the Open2Sustain project for sustainable development Euro-Mediterranean, funded by the Francophone University Agency. The project's alliance consists of academic members from 6 countries, namely Bordeaux Montaigne University in France, Coimbra University in Portugal, the Francophone Digital Campus in Algeria, Annaba University in Algeria, Mohammed I University, Oujda in Morocco, Sousse University in Tunisia, and Alexandria University in Egypt, and the Francophonie Institute for Education and Training, Dakar. Senegal as a non-academic partner.