

Alexandria University Student Union Council

Report on Students union elections and Establishment for the year 2021-2022

Announcement the opening of candidacy for the student union Elections

Prof. Abdel Aziz Kansowa, President of Alexandria University, announced the opening of candidacy for the student union elections for the academic year 2021/2022, next Thursday, 11/18/2021.

The President of Alexandria University said that the university has prepared to hold elections and provide a fair competitive environment, so that students can choose their representatives in student unions with free will.

He pointed out that all precautionary measures will be taken to confront the Corona virus to provide the appropriate atmosphere for student participation in the electoral process effectively.

Kansouh pointed out the importance of urging students to participate in the student union elections; To achieve the concept of democracy and freedom to bring out conscious generations capable of bearing societal responsibility, for the advancement of Egypt.

The President of Alexandria University added that he directed the deans of the faculties to achieve discipline during the electoral process, to be conducted transparently and democratically so that all students can participate, and to present ideas and creative visions that reflect the university's strategy in building a strong personality for its students capable of taking responsibility and making decisions.

Dr. Wael Nabil, Acting Vice President for Education and Student Affairs, explained that the initial lists of candidates will be announced on Sunday, November 21, and that appeals will be received on Monday, November 22, and examined the next day immediately.

Nabil indicated that the final lists will be announced on Wednesday, November 24, and the election campaigns will start on November 25, while the first round elections in faculties and counting will take place, and the results will be announced on Sunday, November 28, and the repeat will be on the next day.

The Vice President of Alexandria University added that the elections for committees, faculties secretaries and their assistants will take place on Tuesday, November 30, and the next day, December 1, the elections of college union presidents and their deputies.

Under the patronage of Dr. Abdel Aziz Kansowa, President of Alexandria University, Dr. Wael Nabil, Vice President of Alexandria University for Education and Student Affairs, witnessed, on Sunday evening, 4/24/2022, the inauguration ceremony of the Alexandria

University Students' Union Council for the current academic year, and honoring members of the university's student unions councils for the two years Undergraduate students 2020/2019 and 2021/2020, in the presence of the deans and deans of the faculties of Alexandria University, and members of the Student Union Council.

In his speech, Dr. Nabil expressed his happiness to be in this celebration after a break that lasted for more than two years, confirming the return of student activities within the university by 100%, and announced the return of the Higher Committee for Student Activities and a coordinator of student activities within each college, stressing the role of youth in the new republic called for by President Abdel Al-Fattah Al-Sisi, which will be based on the youth, added that the Students' Union is the factory of leaders, calling on all students to unite to serve their university. It was characterized by integrity and transparency, stressing that the university will, as usual, provide full support to the Student Union to achieve the interests of the students. The students, and His Excellency thanked the previous federations for the wonderful effort that was made during their tenure of the federation, in a difficult period.

While the student Omar Mabrouk, President of the Alexandria University Students' Union, thanked his colleagues for their trust in him to be their representative, wishing that he would meet their expectations, noting that he still has many challenges that must be faced with all reason and wisdom, and stressed that the union is working to achieve what the students want and what they need. On all sides, hoping that all unions in all Egyptian universities work according to a single and cooperative vision in a way that achieves the interests of all students in Egyptian universities.

Announcement of results

The results of the last stage of the student elections at Alexandria University for the academic year 2022/2021 were announced, which resulted in the student Amr Mabrouk Abdel Meguid winning in the fourth year at the Faculty of Science the position of President of the Alexandria University Students' Union, and the student Fadi Ashraf Ahmed, a student in the fourth year at the Faculty of Physical Education for Boys, as the position Vice President of the Federation.

The election process for the position of the University Student Union's President and Vice President took place by secret ballot in the presence of Dr. Abdel Aziz Qansouh, President of the University, and the participation of the presidents and deputies of the student unions in the faculties of Alexandria University.

In his speech after the announcement of the election result, Dr. Konsowa congratulated the winning students and thanked the former student union for its efforts during the past year under exceptional circumstances, stressing that the university will support the new student union, and will provide it with all the material and moral facilities that their role requires in the next stage, stressing Student activity is an essential part of university life, and is linked to the formation of the integrated personality of the university student. He pointed out that the university seeks to increase student activities, and is continuing to establish programs to qualify students and prepare leadership cadres for the future. He also stressed that the new union has a degree of flexibility due to the efforts made by the university. In vaccinating most of its affiliates against the Corona virus, which helps to gradually restore most of its various activities.

The new union directed the need to expand their role and encourage all students to participate in various activities, motivate them, refine their talents, support the spirit of competition among them, and choose the best elements to participate in internal and external competitions.

The president of the university also announced the provision of five scholarships to study in one of the most prestigious international universities in partnership with Alexandria University for the top five students participating in student activities, and these scholarships include all students of the University Colleges Student Union.

It is noteworthy that the number of students who submitted their candidacy papers for 1289 students to run the electoral marathon, the number of candidates after examining applications and appeals reached 1185 students. Secretary of the Families Committee, and student Rawan Muhammad Al-Sayed Zureik in the third year of the Faculty of Tourism as Assistant Secretary.

In the Sports Committee, student Maryam Amr Ibrahim, Faculty of Dentistry, won the position of Secretary, and student Karim Mustafa Ahmed, Faculty of Tourism, won the position of Assistant Secretary.

The student, Muhammad Ahmed Hussein, in the third year of the Faculty of Economic Studies, decided the position of Secretary of the Cultural Committee, and the student Marwan Ramadan Abdel-Muttalib, the third year of the Faculty of Computers, was appointed as the Assistant Secretary.

In the roving committee, the student Muhammad Mahmoud Al-Najjar, the fourth year of the Faculty of Commerce, won the position of secretary, and the student Marwan Ayman Abdel Razek Ajban, the fourth year, at the Faculty of Physical Education, as the assistant secretary.

Student Muhammad Muhammad Mahfouz Abdel Aziz won the fourth year of the Faculty of Agriculture as Secretary of the Technical Committee, and student Salma Rajab Hassan, fourth year of the Faculty of Tourism, won the position of Assistant Secretary.

In the Social Committee, the student Ahmed Ali Al-Sayed won the third year of the Faculty of Science as the Secretary, and the student Abdullah Muhammad Rakabi, the fourth year, at the Faculty of Physical Education, as the Assistant Secretary.

The position of Secretary of the Scientific Committee was won by the student Abdul Rahman Reda Ibrahim in the fifth year of the Faculty of Medicine, and the student Ola Muhammad Ahmed Muhammad, the third year in the Faculty of Physical Education for Girls, as the assistant secretary.

IN the university council, The President of the University stressed the support of the elected Student Union, stressing the university's keenness to provide all facilities to perform their role in achieving permanent and continuous communication between students and faculty members, representing students and expressing them and their needs, in addition to organizing student activities of various kinds, scientific, cultural, sports and entertainment. Encouraging students to participate in it, adding that the university will provide 5 free scholarships for outstanding students in various student activities to study at international universities.

