

Students attending the university council meeting

Dr. Abdel Aziz Qansouh, President of Alexandria University, welcomed at the University Council meeting, on May 21st the students attending for the meeting and honored the winning research students in Alexandria University initiative to support research of students, The winners were announced by the University's Project Management Unit, where 72 research students submitted 72 research proposals to it.

*

