

A cooperation Protocol between Alexandria university and Alexandria Sanitation Company

Prof. Abdel Aziz Konsowa, President of Alexandria University, and Major General A.H. Engineer Mahmoud Mohamed Nafi, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Managing Director of the Alexandria Sanitation Company, signed a joint cooperation protocol to contract with distinguished students among first graduates of Alexandria University to work in the Alexandria Sanitation Company.

the

Prof. Konsowa indicated that the protocol aims to provide employment opportunities for the top graduates of Alexandria University in the Faculties of Engineering, Commerce, Law, Science and Arts during the last five years in all fields and specializations in accordance with the actual needs and the annual employment plan of the Alexandria Sanitation Company in various sectors and each according to his specialization.

Engineer Nafi also pointed out that the protocol aims to prepare a new generation of distinguished cadres to deal with the latest technologies. He added that it was also agreed to grant employees of the Alexandria Sanitation Company the possibility of obtaining master's and doctoral degrees at reduced prices. It was also agreed to hold workshops in each sector of the company. Sanitation in Alexandria, and organizing training courses in cooperation with specialized professors from Alexandria University to identify needs and improve the performance of these sectors according to the nature of their work.