

The Professional Development Center organizes a round table on the role of Egyptian universities in encouraging entrepreneurs

Under the patronage of Prof. Abdel Aziz Konsowa, President of Alexandria University, the University Center for Professional Development at the Faculty of Commerce organized a round table to discuss (the role of Egyptian universities in encouraging and empowering young entrepreneurs and spreading entrepreneurial thinking among young people) in the presence of Dr. Al-Sayed Al-Saifi, Dean of the Faculty of Commerce, and Dr. Alaa Al-Gharbawy, Vice Dean of the Faculty. for community service and environmental development affairs, and a large number of economic experts and representatives of companies interested in spreading entrepreneurship thought, and officials from the Enterprise Development Agency, the Information Technology Institute (ITI), and the Technological Innovation and Entrepreneurship Center (TIEC) of the Ministry of Communications..

During the session moderated by Dr. Aisha Hamdi, Director of the University Center for Professional Development (UCCD), several recommendations were presented and discussed for developing entrepreneurship curricula to keep pace with developments in the world of entrepreneurship, and some successful models of entrepreneurs who own successful companies were presented, and what funding bodies offer and ideas for training and qualifying young people.

