

A cooperation protocol between Alexandria University and Siemens Healthcare – Egypt - 2022

Prof. Abdel Aziz Konsowa, President of Alexandria University, announced the signing of a cooperation protocol with Siemens Healthcare - Egypt, with the aim of strengthening and developing cooperation between the two sides in the scientific and academic fields.

The university president explained that the protocol was signed by Dr. Saeed Allam, Dean of the Faculty of Engineering, and Mr. Michael Schmermar, CEO of Siemens Healthcare - Egypt, and included the provision of educational and training programs for students of the Bioengineering Program at the Faculty of Engineering with the aim of developing their basic, technical and engineering skills in a way that contributes to promoting and developing common interests.

The signing of the agreement was attended by Dr. Walid Abdel Azim, Vice Dean of the College of Engineering for Community Service and Environmental Development, Dr. Issam Wahba, Vice Dean of the College of Engineering for Postgraduate Studies and Research, Dr. Mohamed Helmy, former Vice Dean of the College of Engineering for Education and Student Affairs, and Dr. Mohamed Rizk, full-time professor at the College of Engineering and coordinator. Biomedical Engineering Program, and