

A new gold medal in the Mediterranean Games was achieved by a graduate of the Faculty of Physical Education at Alexandria University

2022

Prof. Abdel Aziz Konsowa, President of Alexandria University, congratulated the player Yousry Hafez, a graduate of the Faculty of Physical Education for Boys, for winning the gold medal in the 91-kg boxing competition in the nineteenth edition of the Mediterranean Games, which are now being held in the city of Oran, Algeria, with the participation of 26 countries and more than 4,000. Athletes compete in 24 sports over 10 days, continuing until next July 6.

For his part, Prof. Mohamed Bilal, Dean of the College of Physical Education for Boys, congratulated the player, Yousry Hafez, for obtaining a new gold medal to be added to the tally of the Egyptian delegation in the Mediterranean Games Championship, praising the fruitful results achieved by the Egyptian champions in various sports, and the advanced level that appears in various forums. International University, stressing the keenness of the leaders of Alexandria University to follow up on the efforts of the General Administration for Youth Welfare at the university in implementing programs and camps to prepare male and female players for all tournaments, meet their needs and create the appropriate atmosphere for them to achieve these honorable results.