

7 graduates of the Faculty of Economic Studies and Political Science win the position of diplomatic attaché

Dr. Abdelaziz Konsowa, President of Alexandria University, congratulated the graduates of the Faculty of Economic Studies and Political Science - Alexandria University

Islam Ibrahim
Maryam Abu El Hana

Marwan Saad
Basant Mohamed El Sayed
Fatima Zahra Anwar
yara yasser
Nora Nafeh

For winning the job of a diplomatic attaché, in the competition recently organized by the Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, to fill these positions. They are graduates of the Political Science Department, the two divisions of study in both Arabic and English.

For his part, Dr. Ahmed Wahban, Dean of the faculty, expressed his happiness with the honorable representation of the College's graduates, and their ability to occupy prestigious positions in one of the largest strongholds of foreign policy.

Alexandria University seeks to restore its historical role by achieving a comprehensive qualitative leap in various fields of knowledge within a framework of noble human values that enable it to assume its leading position, whether at the local, Arab, African or global levels.

Gender Report 2020-2021

Compiled by: Dr / Nadira Sobhy Mohamed

Information, Documentary and Decision Support Center

Alexandria University

Introduction

Sustainable Development Strategy (Egypt's Vision 2030) entails a strategic vision, which is to provide a high quality education and training system for all, without discrimination. With this vision, students and trainees are provided with the necessary skills to help them think creatively and empower them technically and technologically; and contribute to the development of proud, creative, responsible and competitive citizens who accept diversity and differences, are proud of their country's history, and are eager to build its future and can complete with regional and international entities.

This report that provides data on the count of students, postgraduates, staff, assistant staff and employees.

These counts are used to monitor gender in Alexandria University and therefore, monitor the percentage of female each year, in order to keep pace with the international standards and to ensure that here is no gender disparity in women enrolment ratio at all levels.

All the data presented in this report is supplied by managers of from different department and are analyzed interpreted and presented by Information, Documentation and Decision Support Center.
